

Consumerism

Consumerism

Buy it newer, buy it now,
Broke? With credit you're allowed
To impress people that you hate.
Buy our things- it will be great!
A vision of life- this could be you!
Buy it now and buy it new.
Buy it often, every week,
Even things you'll never seek.
Come and buy, be popular,
For that's the only side you've heard;
Buy with credit from the sky.
Don't mind the debt that's piled high.
Live life today, as it was meant,
Does it matter where tomorrow went?
For, who knows, you might just die.
So come on over, just buy and buy.
